And

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE D.APPA RAO

W.A.NO.215 OF 2005

ORDER: (PER HON'BLE Sri justice B.Prakash Rao)

Heard both the counsel and at their request, the main appeal itself is taken up for disposal.

The writ petitioner is the appellant herein who seeks to assail the order of the learned single Judge in W.P.M.P.No.2986 of 2006 in W.P.No.2444 of 2006 wherein a direction was given to the effect that the amount which are payable on account of service of the mother of the appellant shall not be paid to any parties pending further orders.

It is seen that there are other relevant claims in respect of the amounts and the alleged appellant is sought to take them. It is stated that the appellant had obtained succession certificate and admittedly he is seeking direction on 1/3 of the same. We are not agreeing the request made on behalf of the petitioner especially in the absence of the other shareholders as parties to the writ petition. Giving opportunity to the appellant herein to take appropriate steps to implead all the share holders as necessary parties and then seek fresh directions. Therefore, we do not find any merits in the writ appeal.

Accordingly, the writ appeal is dismissed.
